How to Play

To play, pick one player to be the "game head." This is the person who is going to read the questions to the group. Next, be sure that each player has a blank piece of paper that they can write their answers on. When the game head asks the question, the players should get 60-seconds to write their answer down.

After 50 questions, the player with the most correct responses is the winner. This is possible to play in multiple rounds, too. Where three rounds are played and the player who wins the most rounds is the winner of the entire game.

Fun tip: You can play this game through text messages, too! Simply ask the trivia questions through the group chat.
